

WILDLIFE CAMPSITE DECORATION CONTEST

Al & Joanie Stone, National Wildlife Directors

ATTENTION ALL OF YOU THAT LIKE CRAFT PROJECTS.
PUT ON YOUR THINKING CAPS!

Here are the rules:

1. It must be an decoration that can be placed on your awning or on the ground by your campsite.
2. The decoration must be made not purchased.
3. It should depict wildlife in some manner.
4. You can work individually or in a group

Prizes will be awarded in three categories:

1. The most unique
2. The most colorful
3. Best depiction of Wildlife

Please bring your decoration to the Wildlife Booth at National to be judged. Indicate on a sheet of paper your name or names of those individuals who made the decoration. Please indicate your site number and color on the paper.

You may either have your decoration returned to you after the contest is over, or if you wish, we will sell your donated campsite decoration with the monies going to the Wildlife Grants. Please be sure to indicate your wishes on the paper you turn in.

Judging will be on Monday - Please pick up your decoration by Tuesday A.M. if you want it back. Thank you for participating.

It will be interesting to see what our FCRV family comes up with for Wildlife decorations.
