

MISS FCRV 2010

By
DeWayne Johnston

Sixteen year old Taylor Jordan McClelland from Lansing, Michigan was crowned Miss FCRV for 2010 at the 50th annual Campvention in July at Berrien Springs, Michigan.

Taylor is the daughter of Edward and Alisa McClelland, 11 year members of the Early Risers Chapter #88. They have also been Michigan Teen Directors for the past 9 years. Taylor's grandparents, Floyd and Lynn McClelland of Waterford and Dennis Trent of Gladwin are also campers. Taylor has a sister, MacKenzie who is 10 and a brother Seth who is 8.

Taylor is in 11th grade at Okemos High School where she carries a 3.8 g.p.a. Her favorite subjects are math and science and she has won Certificates of Appreciation twice from teachers. She is a member of Peer Assistance Leaders (P.A.L.) which helps students with drug and alcohol awareness. She is an all state Academic Games player and a member of the National Honor Society. She plays varsity softball and is number one in stealing bases. At Campvention her teen sports team came in first in softball and she anchored the winning tug of war team. Taylor plans to attend Michigan State University and major in pre-med with the goal of becoming a sports physician.

Her hobbies are scrapbooking, texting friends, and reading. Her favorite authors are Stephanie Meyer, Sarah Dessen, and Nicholas Sparks. She collects snow globes.

Taylor's rendition of Sugarland's song, "Settlin'" won her the title of Miss Talent in the Miss FCRV Pageant. She began singing at age 5 and won the MI Teeny Queen contest. She was the Pre-teen Princess at ages 11 and 12. She was Michigan's State Teen Queen at 13 and again at 15. This year was her second time in the national pageant. Her favorite singer is Carrie Underwood and she has met Lee Ann Womack at Interlocken. Her whole family spends a week camping at Cadillac every summer. Four units park back to back and everyone goes tubing or fishing.

She enjoyed the support of her grandparents, and two aunts and uncles who attended Campvention this year as well as her boyfriend, Andy Steubel. Many FCRV members from Michigan wore pink “Taylor” t-shirts to the pageant. Taylor said, “I can’t get away with anything because everybody knows me.”

Taylor said her win was a complete surprise. She was glad to meet all the girls in the pageant and said that they were very nice and very talented. Taylor McClelland will represent the 5,500 families of the Family Campers & RVers at RV shows and other events until next year’s national rally (Campvention) at Ladson, South Carolina. For information visit www.fcrv.org.