

SCHAUBS OF MICHIGAN ELECTED FCRV RETIREE ROYALTY

Pete and Samie-Jo Schaub, 32 year members of FCRV from Traverse City Michigan were elected as FCRV's International Retiree King and Queen at FCRV's 2010 Retiree Rally in March at Ladson, South Carolina. The Schaub's were members of the Cherry Capitol Campers and are current members of Chapter #316, The Traverse Bay Travellers and the Still-A-Goin Retiree Chapter.

Starting in 1978 they served their chapter in various capacities including President. They also served the Michigan State Association since 1994. Samie-Jo has been Michigander Newsletter Photographer, and MSA Teen Queen Pageant Coordinator. Pete has been MSA President and Senior Advisor. Both were Parade Chairmen for National Campventions, first aid for spring and fall campouts, and were Field Directors and are the current Northern MI District Directors.

In his spare time, Pete enjoys camping, fishing, deer hunting, riding a 3 wheeled Spider motorcycle. He also helps out with baseball and high school football which a grandson plays. Another grandson drives a race car and Pete helps with that also. Pete makes flag poles and wishes everyone had a flag in their yard.

Samie-Jo enjoys camping, riding the Spuder with Pete, crafts, and working in her flower garden. She also is involved in bird watching and recycling. Together the couple has done a "Sonny and Cher" comedy act in variety shows.

Pete and Samie-Jo Schaub have been married 48 years and have 4 children, 6 grandchildren, and 4 great grandchildren.

FCRV (Family Campers and RVers) is a non-profit family camping organization with 6,000 families in the U.S. and Canada. It was formed in 1949 as the National Campers & Hikers Association. Campouts and rallies are held on a local, state / province, region, and national basis with a National Campvention in the summer (this year's is in Berrien Springs, Michigan July 9-16) and a National Retiree Rally in a sunbelt state in the winter (2011 is in Canton, Texas March 22-27). 300 to 500 units attend.
