From the President - Gerry Pfirsch

Let me start out by saying thank you for your support. It is an honor to be in this position and I say thank you.

I hope that each of you took the opportunity to attend some of the activities presented in the virtual Campvention. If you did not please take a little time and go to

YOU TUBE and view the parade, attend the things that are still there for you to see. I would like to thank Jill for her hard work and the dedication she put into putting the details together so that we could have the first virtual Campvention. Jill you did a great job! We thank you for this. I found myself down on Saturday morning as I was working on items here at home for the move. I could not shake it and mid-day as I was taking a break in the days work that I had planned it came to light why I was feeling down. If at Campvention it would have been the feeling that one has when they are hooked up to the rig and pulling out of the grounds to start the trip home. Yes, we had a virtual Campvention but that same feeling was there on Saturday morning.

As we move ahead, we are unsure what we will be up against, but we know that together we can and will make it to the next Campvention. Your 2021 team is working diligently to put things together for July 2021. I hope that each of you will take advantage of the discount offer that the team has just approved for early registration. Remember that a penny saved is a penny earned. I must say that at full price 2021 will be a bargain, so it is my sincere hope that you make plans now to attend. I will see you there.

As we move through the uncharted waters that remain of 2020, we will take what it has to throw at us and we will come out stronger than we started. You know I feel that if we have over time taken our DASAT lessons seriously we had an advantage over many in the nation. This is the time that we should be shining. We have had these classes, lectures, and training for many situations so we can adapt to this pandemic and help to protect our families and friends as much as humanly possible by listening to the experts and using some caution. Stay safe and well!

I say we are well and I am looking forward to the next year and am excited now more than ever about seeing you at Campvention in Wisconsin. Get involved and take on that project in your Chapter that needs someone to head up. Start that project that your Chapter, State Director, Regional Director has been trying to get off the ground or needs someone to head up. And we will see you at the next campfire. Until then stay safe!

WEBSITE IS CHANGING

The FCRV website is going to be changing and being updated. Carl who works part time at the office is going to be doing the redesign and eventually will be taking over the website updating. Until that is all completed anything you have for the website needs to be sent to both of us. Here are the email addresses you need to send website items to.

VIRTUAL CAMPVENTION

The True North Strong & Free

FCRV HOLDS VIRTUAL 2020 CAMPVENTION

While several other national camping organizations were cancelling rallies, FCRV officials came up with a novel way of having their annual summer Campvention despite the Covid-19 Pandemic. President Shari Weber got the idea of presenting and recording the various activities from the way tv stations were splitting their screens and coupling multiple correspondents who were confined to home. With the help of Chairman, Camy Hicks, Co- chairmen, Lyn Acre and Lorne Douglas, the various activity chairmen, and Video Coordinator, Jill Sebousek, a plan took place. Using the ZOOM format, each activity was recorded and shown on the FCRV website, and made available for replay through August at www.fcrv.org/come-camp-with-us/campvention/campvention2020.

The first presentation on Sunday, July 12th was the opening ceremony with welcomes from President, Shari Weber, and Campvention Chairperson, Camy Hicks who noted that the Brigidon, Ontario area would still be prominent in the Campvention theme of "True North Strong and Free ."

From different locations, the U.S. National Anthem was sung by Beth Standiford and the Canadian Anthem was sung by Jack Smye. The traditional ribbon was cut by International Retiree King and Queen, Matt and Marla Mantia. Next came the parade of flags with several provinces and states represented from their location.

Daily activities such as crafts, seminars, book readings for children, misc. activities, etc. are covered in separate articles. C.A.M.P. activities are self monitored and reports turned in.

Although other entertainment was booked for Campvention, one was available to do a streaming performance on YouTube and share it with FCRV's 'Virtual' viewers. Kelly Joe Masson sang an enjoyable variety of songs while accompanying himself on the piano. His energetic and affable style went from vintage rock, to folk, country and novelty tunes by Jerry Lee Lewis, Elvis Presley, Garth Brooks, and Irish tavern songs. Kelly Joe was accompanied by his young son, Grayson on the trombone for several numbers.

National Awards were announced Wednesday evening by Sue Carlsen. A Citation for exemplary service was presented by JeAnne Selby to Sherry McGuire of N.& S. Dakota, Award of Merit was presented to Barb Turner by Jack Smye who also presented an Award of Merit to Scholarship Director, Carl Wood. The Humanitarian award was presented by Shari Weber to Carl and Sue Fromholzer of NY. Heather Weber participated in the presentation. The Hank Nathan Lifetime Achievement Award was presented at the Annual Meeting to Jack and Sonya Smye of Ontario. (Awards details in separate article.)

On Wednesday a combination interview and variety show was hosted by Megan Douglas and past Teen Royalty. Interviewed were Rebecca Coniglio, Blake and Mercedes (Tenyson) Burnett, Emily Kurburski, Nick Kite, Katie Kurburski, Taylor McClelland, and Beth ONeal. Watch the video and you will be amazed by their accomplishments.

Entertainment was provided by Macey Stuckwisch (piano), Lisa Collier, (sang), plus on video from past pageants – Beth ONeal (comedy), Haley Roark (sang), Peter Kurburski (danced), and Erin Martone (sang). The program ended on a practical note by Miss FCRV 2012, Alyssa (Robb) Petty who now holds a Doctorate in Physical Therapy. She concluded by giving advice on how to protect against the Coronavirus. This event took the place of a Teen Queen and King Pageant this year and the 2019 Court will remain in place until the 2021 Campvention.

FCRV's Annual Meeting was held Thursday, July 16th at 7:37 p.m. with all Trustees present. President, Shari Weber began by honoring all living Past FCRV Presidents and wives. Recording / Corresponding Officer, Sue Carlsen read the minutes from the July 2019 meeting in Kansas. Comptroller, Jan Cushing reported finances to date – Assets $390,663, Liabilities, $79,374, Income $87,105, Expenses $104,442, Loss $17,337, Equity $311,289. She noted that she subscribed to the Federal Payroll Protection Act for the office employees.

Shari Weber presented the Hank Nathan Lifetime Achievement Award to Jack and Sonya Smye. The award is for members who have been in the organization 25 years or more and have shown exemplary service and dedication. Dave Ludwig, Larry Roop, Pat Parsley, Sue Fromholzer, Camy Hicks, Scott Serbousek, Sandy Kendall, George Walters, and Shari Weber all read tributes of appreciation for the years of leadership.

In other business, VP of Planning and Development, Matt Mantia noted that 30 Commercial members have renewed. General Membership Director, Chris Weiss presented growth awards to Florida, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, North Carolina (5 new members each), and Nevada 4.

Scholarship Director, Carl Wood said that the pandemic had made it difficult for applicants to get access to the transcripts and documents required to apply. It also made the results delayed. The 9 winners will share $12,000 and will be notified soon. Scholarship Fund balance is $242,156. Donations this year to date are $463. Winners will be published when available.

Sue Fromholzer thanked the Campvention team who had planned a regular event then had to adapt it to a Virtual Campvention. Team Leaders were 1. Lew Acres, John Scott, 2. Dave Skillings, Sharon Sandau, 3. Rudy Sandau, Connie Skillings, 4. Giles & Barb Dore, Michael & Ruth Zahr, 5. Mabel Douglas, Darlene Wilson, Publicity Harold & Elizabeth Merton, Security Brian Chatfield, Registration Marilyn Rosenberg, Treasurer David Wilson. Also praising the 'Worker Bees' was the Chairman, Camy Hicks who thanked the volunteers for making FCRV History.

Shari Weber presented a President's Award Certificate to Jill Serbousek for the hours of planning and skillfully implementing the video presentations of a Virtual Campvention.

Jill and Scott Serbousek were very busy before and during Campvention

At this point, past President, Dave Ludwig installed the new officers. Taking their oaths were President, Gerald (Gerry) Pfirsch, Vice President of Programs, Lorne Douglas, and Recording / Corresponding Secretary, Beth Standiford. Their biographies were in the March issues of Camping Today. President Pfirsch gave credit to all the officers who have served NCHA/FCRV in the past for building it into what it is today. He said, "I can't wait to get back to the hugs, laughs, and catching up we missed out on this year." Outgoing officers, George Walters, Sue Carlsen, and Shari Weber thanked the Campvention 2020 Committee, Trustees and the membership for their support.

New President, Gerald Pfirsch has plans for FCRV's future.

The meeting ended with a neat song adapted by Sue and Carl Fromholzer, "Wander Wisconsin" to the tune of "Happy Wanderer" (public domain) sung by George Walters. Barb Turner previewed several tours in the area and Shari Weber reminded everyone that Campvention 2021 will be held at the Walworth County Fairgrounds in Elkhorn, Wisconsin. July 11-16. Each site has water and 30 amp electric and there are dump stations on grounds. The annual Rib Fest will be going on at the same time and we will have our own tent to see the 9 bands perform. Ten rib providers and many vendors will be on hand. YOU CAN SAVE $30 IF YOU REGISTER BY DECEMBER 21, 2020.

A fitting end to a Campvention that almost wasn't was a sparkling virtual parade with 18 entries that showed the very real spirit of FCRV. There's a lot to see and enjoy by viewing the Campvention at www.fcrv.org/come-camp-with-us/campvention/campvention_2020. Click on each event. Preregistered events are on FCRV'S Facebook page – Family Campers & RVers. You'll see how many viewers each event had plus many interesting comments.

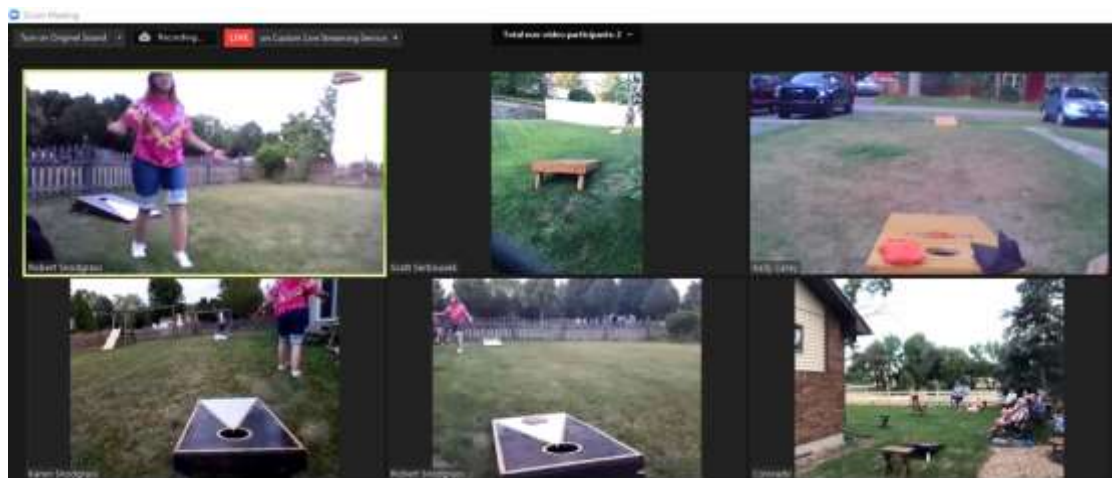

We hope everyone enjoyed Campvention, Barb Turners grandkids did.

CORNHOLE RESULTS

The first ever FCRV National Cornhole tournament was held live on Zoom Meetings and streamed via YouTube during Virtual Campvention. The tournament kicked off Campvention activities early, taking place on Sunday, July 12th.

Participants from Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, and Colorado joined, covering three time zones! They were: Scott Serbousek, Rhonda O'Neal, Pete Luensmann, Micki Luensmann from Illinois, Linda Snyder, Bill Snyder, Ruth Wert & Doug Wert from Colorado, Jamie Carey & Grace Carey from Michigan, and Robert Snodgrass, Karen Snodgrass, Katie Snodgrass & Kathy Krzewinski from Ohio

Several FCRV Members actively viewed and commented via YouTube, adding to the fun. A special thanks to Marilyn Rausch who came up with some excellent cheers which were read by Jill Serbousek who was providing commentary and overall scorekeeping for the tournament.

Due to darkness and rain in the eastern time zone, we had to modify the layout from a double-elimination to a single elimination tournament, thus, we really only know who got first and second place. The loser's bracket was manufactured, giving Rhonda O'Neal a "fake" third place. The championship came down to Scott Serbousek and Pete Luensmann, who took the finals to 3 games. In the third game, Scott came out victorious.

Thank you to all of our players and active watchers for making this event so fun! Congratulations to Scott and Pete on their first and second place finishes. The YouTube video can be found on the FCRV YouTube channel at <https://youtu.be/dcYahlcSsHs>.

AWARD PRESENTATIONS

Sue Carlsen thanked the Awards Committee for their time in reviewing the nominations and determining the results.

From Region 3 - Richard and Idamarie Roberts, Nevada State Director, representing the Executive Board

From Region 1 - Vern Failor, a field staff member from Kansas

From Region 4 – Scott and Jill Serbousek – previous plaque recipients

Perhaps because of the uncertainty of how the pandemic would affect our campvention this year, we did not receive many nominations for national awards. It certainly was not for lack of hard work on the part of our members. My knowledge of the wonderful things you all do for FCRV, and your communities, reveals an organization of dedicated volunteers. Maybe next year, our world will be in a better place and we'll have the time to be more reflective on the accomplishments of our fellow campers.

FCRV Individual Award – Citation - 2020

Sherry McGuire from North Dakota received an FCRV Citation. Sherry has definitely contributed beyond the normal call of duty as a member of our Field Staff. She was nominated by Jeanne Selby.

- Sherry has been the CAMP Chairperson of her chapter for 15 years
- President of the Roaming Buffalos Chapter for 9 years
- A field director for 12 years
- Sherry co-chaired the Club's float entry for the 2015 Campvention Parade in Gillette, WY. The float won both 1st place in its division and the National President's Award.
- Coordinated the chapters' food collection program resulting in an average of 300 pounds of food delivered to the local food pantry each holiday season for the past five years.
- She has arranged for and coordinated club conservation service projects with local parks and other agencies.
- In July 2017 Sherry accepted the position of Assistant State Director, and continues in that capacity to the present.
- Shari has chaired three North Dakota State Campventions as well as the Regional Campvention event hosted by North and South Dakota in 2017.
- Thanks to Sherry's planning, time and effort, the Roaming Buffalo Chapter received the 2018 Best Chapter Conservation Project Award at the 2018 National Campvention for their program detailing the requirements to be designated a USDA-certified organic farm as well as the health benefits of eating organically grown foods.

- As a member of the 2019 National Campvention Steering Committee, Sherry chaired the 2019 National Parade Committee and Pet Parade.
- Sherry has also given generously of her time within her community. She served as PTA President from 1987 to 1990.
- She has been a member of the local Women's Club Room since 2006, and has served as a Board Member from 2007 to the present (13 years). The offices she has held are those of President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer; she is currently Financial Secretary.
- Sherry has parlayed her knitting and crocheting talents into volunteer contributions to her community. For the past 8 years she has knitted and crocheted prayer shawls for distribution through her church to local cancer patients and shut-ins.
- Sherry has also knitted infant sweaters for layette sets, which her church donates to world relief, for the past 7 years.
- Just within the past year Sherry has also started knitting caps for 3-to-5-year-olds enrolled in the local Head Start program.
- In summary, Sherry has been a wonderful ambassador for her club, state, regional and national FCRV, always projecting a positive image of FCRV. She is a very capable leader, recognizing needs and stepping forward to fill those needs no matter how challenging, but also graciously supporting others in leadership positions. She is courteous, tech savvy, has excellent communication skills, and is a creative problem solver.
- Also noteworthy are two awards Sherry has received through the United Methodist Church and United Methodist Women, in recognition of her outstanding and long-term volunteer contributions.

The Person in Mission Award in 2002. This award is based on the recipient's involvement in the church and the community.

She was also honored with the Jewel of a Woman Award in 2004. This award is given to an individual in recognition of her contributions to the Church and United Methodist Women.

FCRV Award of Merit

The FCRV Award of Merit may be given annually as determined by the Board of Trustees. The purpose of the award is to recognize, reward, and thank Executive Board members for their effort and dedication to FCRV. Nominations can only be made by the Regional Directors, the Vice Presidents, the President, and the immediate Past President. Candidates are nominated on their accomplishments during the past January to January twelve-month period. Both Executive Board members receiving an Award of Merit this year were nominated by Jack Smye.

Barb Turner always does great research into the areas that will be visited on the pre or post Campvention Travelongs, and with her husband, Jim, makes them quite enjoyable for those who attend. This year, because of COVID 19, the normal Travelong activities have been cancelled for both the Retiree Rally in Alabama, as well as our annual Campvention in Ontario. However, most of Barb's work had already been done.

While not necessarily included in her job description as Travelong Coordinator, Barb volunteers to do advertising for both the National Retiree Rally and Campvention. In this capacity, Barb provides interesting insights into the communities nearby, as well as the venues that attendees at a Rally or Campvention may enjoy. This involves extensive research and time spent writing articles for Camping Today. In short, Barb does a very thorough job in the Travelong position, and always has.

Perhaps more important than the appointed position of Travelong Coordinator, are the updates Barb has provided for well over 10 years. This selfless dedication of conveying important news about members and FCRV programs has been a critical and timely communication component of FCRV. In many respects, her, sometimes daily, updates keep a great number of the active membership informed about the well being of fellow members, allowing us to act, or react, in a timely manner.

The trustees have also approved an Award of Merit to the FCRV Scholarship Director, Carl Wood.

Carl is very thorough and diligent in organizing the paper work and application forms for potential FCRV scholarship applicants. His approach to both the hired professionals and the applicants has always been very professional. Over the last two years, he has successfully recruited new members to fill vacant Scholarship Board positions and did the necessary paper work to officially change the name of the Scholarship fund to include the name of our founder, Hank Nathan – a very tedious process. Carl has been inclusive in soliciting the thoughts of the current board members in any decisions that could affect the Scholarship award system, or the functioning of the Board. This year, because of COVID 19, Carl expressed concern on whether potential student applicants would have time to get the necessary paperwork in for review by the professional scholarship panel. Carl solicited the opinions of the FCRV Board members, and because there was concern on whether an extension to the submission due date for applications should be extended, he single handedly did the research to determine that students could still get the necessary application forms into the professional board by the normal deadline date. This took a good deal of extra work and effort on Carl's part. His work allowed the FCRV scholarship board to concur, unanimously, that an extension of the due date for applicants was not necessary.

Carl does support activities in Ontario Provincial Association. Because of his wife's health, Linda and Carl cannot always make a lot of the "normal" camping activities of the organization. Yet in spite of this issue, he performs his task as Scholarship Director extremely professionally. It is a pleasure to have Carl reporting to me as Past President.

FCRV Humanitarian Award - 2020

In addition to recognizing FCRV members for their contributions to the organization, the Awards Program also places a high value on individual acts of kindness and compassion displayed in our daily lives. This year, we are pleased to present the FCRV Humanitarian Award to Sue and Carl Fromholzer

In addition to approving this award, the Awards Committee made the following comments:

Sue and Carl Fromholzer have assisted so many FCRV members over the years. It seems unbelievable there haven't been many letters of thanks, or letters of recognition, presented to them. Sue and Carl have assisted many members, as well as new FCRV officials, by answering questions over the phone and guiding them to the correct decisions that promoted the FCRV motto: "Strangers become friends" and friends become family.” Sue and Carl just proved that with this Humanitarian Award Nomination.

Sue and Carl Fromholzer have given a great deal of their time, and opened their home to Craig and Shari Weber on several occasions while they were dealing with their daughter, Heather’s, numerous recent medical problems. In September, the Weber’s daughter was admitted to the hospital for urgent medical treatment. Heather was diagnosed with end-stage renal failure. Craig & Shari made a quick trip to Buffalo, and the Fromholzers opened their house to give them a place to stay, and made sure they were fed. The next trip to Buffalo was in October, and just Craig went this time. Again, there was a place to stay and meals provided. In early November, Heather was in the hospital with a severe reaction to treatment. Sue and Carl provided her with comfort, and Craig and Shari with information, as they were unable to get to Buffalo. Heather lives about 20 minutes from the Fromholzer’s. Sue and Carl are about 10 minutes from the hospital where Heather was being treated. Just before Christmas, with Heather in the hospital again, Craig and Shari made the trip to Buffalo to be with their daughter. Sue and Carl opened their home, giving Craig and Shari a place to stay, and even fed them many meals.

Sue made sure she went with Heather to the transplant education meeting to help Heather understand the information and expectations. Sue and Carl remained available to assist Heather when needed -- such as trips to dialysis, doctor’s visits, reminders, and other help.

The beginning of January, Craig and Shari showed up at Sue and Carl’s house with their other daughter and one grandson for yet another visit. Again, Sue and Carl opened their home to the Webers and their family.

Sue and Carl Fromholzer have been a very important lifeline for the Webers. They have opened their house and they have fed us. They have kept careful check on our daughter’s needs. They have gotten up at 6 a.m. to drive Heather to dialysis. They have taken Heather homemade chicken noodle soup (which is great and loved by Heather). They attended the transplant education meeting with Heather. All of this they have done with nothing expected in return. They have done this because they are FCRV family. This whole process has been made easier with friends taking care of little things that are huge in situations like this.

Most recently (March 3), Heather was struck by a car while walking across a street. Craig and Shari got the call at about 8:30 p.m. Not having anyone else in the area, they called Sue and Carl, who dropped everything and went to the hospital. They were able to ease the Weber’s fears, and even gave Heather their phone to talk to them. No serious injuries, but lots of bruising and lots of aches. What a great relief to have the Fromholzers who were able to give comfort to Heather and Craig & Shari.

HANK NATHAN LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD 2020

The Hank Nathan Lifetime Achievement Award is a special award presented to individuals who have given extraordinary service and devotion to the Family Campers and RVers. This support may include holding office, chairing and/or participation in activities, program development, and other similar actions performed during their membership years and their lifetime. The minimum requirement to qualify for this award is 25 years of continuous service to FCRV. Previous recipients include:

Our founder himself, Hank Nathan, Noreen Smith, Don & Wilma Plummer, Ray & Jewell Shields, Larry & Vickie Roop, Eldon Sellers, Jim & Barb Turner, Shari & Craig Weber, Juanita Woolworth, and Don & Shirley MacKenzie. Joining this distinguished group, is a couple who fits the criteria outstandingly. It is truly an honor to present the 2020 Hank Nathan Lifetime Achievement Award to Jack and Sonya Smye.

Life time members, the Smye's joined NCHA/FCRV in 1980. The family attended their first campvention in Guelph, Ontario, in 1979 as invited guests and were captivated by the fun and friendliness they experienced. Since that time, they have attended 36 Campventions and 16 Retiree Rallies, holding chairman and co-chairman committee positions for ten of these events. They helped organize 2 State and 3 Provincial campouts, and have received the State Director's Award for Service, a National Citation and a National Plaque. Jack is completing his 18th year as a National Trustee having served 2 years as 2nd Vice President, 4 years as 1st Vice President, 4 years as National President, and 8 years as Past President. The Smye's are or have been members of four chapters, Load Luggers (ON), Travlin Turtles and Quackers (IN), and YARS. Jack served in executive positions in three chapters, as well as three years as South East District Director in Indiana. Many will remember Jack's beautiful voice singing the Canadian National Anthem at our national rallies along with his solo performances at our talent shows.

Jack has been a leader in scouting, held executive positions with community service groups in both Indiana and Ontario, and is active in leadership roles within the Barbershop Choruses to which he belongs. Jack currently performs with the Oakville Entertainers, The Tri- City Gospel Chorus as well as his local church. Jack worked for Otis Elevator for 43 years, of which 26 were in management positions.

Sonya began her career as a Registered Nurse in Labor and Delivery in Hamilton, Ontario. In her late 40's, she started correspondent courses at The University of Waterloo in Ontario earning her BA at the age of 58. When Jack was transferred to Bloomington, Indiana, in 1987, Sonya studied and also received her nursing Licence to practice in Indiana where she was employed in Public Health nursing. Sonya was a devoted wife, mother, and friend. She supported Jack in his various leadership roles. She was known for the award-winning costumes she made for the OPA Halloween campout as well as dressing the trustees for FCRV parades.

Jack and Sonya were married for 55 years, before she passed in March. When Sonya began showing signs of dementia several years ago, the Smye's became involved in Acclaim Health, a local organization supporting this condition. The Smye's have two married children and three granddaughters.

As a result of their extensive involvement in FCRV, Jack and Sonya touched numerous lives on both sides of the border, many of whom contributed to this nomination.

From Larry and Vickie Roop, Past President and current Camping Today Design & Layout:

We first became acquainted with the Smye's when Jack was transferred from his job in Canada to Bloomington, Indiana. As State Directors, we appointed Jack and Sonya to District Directors of our Indiana South-east District. They served in this position until Jack was transferred back to Canada. While Larry served as national President, Jack was elected to the position of 2nd Vice President. We served together on the Board of Trustees for six years. Jack has always been very professional and a true leader for Family Campers & RVers. Jack and Sonya is a couple that represents what the Hank Nathan Lifetime Achievement was created for. We can't think of anyone more deserving of this special award.

From Paul and Pat Parsley, Past Commercial Director and Past Parliamentarian:

We knew Jack and Sonya prior to his Presidency as we camped with them in Canada and the USA. However, it was when Jack became President that we realized he was one of the best leaders. Jack has the ability to articulate in such a way that when there is opposition among decision makers, everyone feels like a winner. He had the ability to bring about changes in a positive, professional manner. It was a pleasure to serve under his leadership and direction. Sonya actively participated in member activities and worked to involve youth. Like Jack, she brought about positive change in a caring manner. She was a beautiful role model. Without a doubt, they both exemplify the positive attributes of this organization.

From George Walters, Vice President of Programs:

Jack has been a source of inspiration to me. Organized and thoughtful, he never hesitates to answer any questions that I have had over the many years that we have worked together. When I am down, he always sends me an email of support, as he does when I face challenges as Vice President of Programs. We also share a love of music and understand the beauty and healing power music can produce. His Barbershop Singing experience relates very well to my own musical experiences with bands and orchestras. It has been a pleasure to call him more than a camping buddy or colleague but to call him my friend.

From Sandy Kendall, Past Recording Officer:

I served on the Board of Trustees with Jack for a number of years. Jack and Sonya have dedicated so much of their lives to FCRV. His kindness and dedication in the various positions on the Board was outstanding. As President Jack did his absolute best to grow the organization and to have it model the premise on what it was built -- family. However, what warms my heart is the dedication they had to each other. Sonya was always there supporting Jack and helping with what she could at the Trustees' meetings. Jack was there to support Sonya when her health started to deteriorate. FCRV is about families, and Jack and Sonya are the perfect example and role model.

From Dave Ludwig, Past President:

I was installed as Second Vice President at the same time Jack Smye was installed for his first term as President of FCRV. I learned a great deal from Jack those first four years that I served under him. In 2012, I was elected President, and Jack became the Past President. During my presidency, I again drew on Jack's counsel and advice quite extensively. We continue to be friends. I think it would be very fitting for Jack to be awarded the Hank Nathan Lifetime Achievement Award.

From Sue Fromholzer, Vice President of Operations and Past Office Manager:

Jack was always helpful and had a kind word in business or personal needs. I was fortunate to spend time with the Smye's traveling to budget meetings. Sonya made the best goodies! When Jack speaks we all listen because of his professional demeanor. He is a very wise man.

From Camy Hicks, Ontario Regional Director:

Thank you for this opportunity of congratulating Jack on this well-deserved honour. Jack and Sonya soon became role models for many of us here in Canada in leadership positions. Later, this evolved into a mentor role on many different occasions, provincially, regionally, and internationally. But personally, I think I enjoyed the most when the four of us travelled to and from the Quacker meetings in Fort Wayne. It was a time for just talking, and now as I look back, that was priceless. God bless you.

From Scott Serbousek, Past Vice President of Planning and Development:

Jack has been a key factor with FCRV as President and Past President over the years. His love for the organization exceeds above and beyond. Jack was as big a supporter of me as a Trustee as I was to him. I consider him a true friend, and I will support him even more in the future. We all can share a great deal with how Jack & Sonya have helped FCRV, but also how their presence has affected us all.

From Shari Weber, FCRV President:

As a fellow trustee, I appreciate Jack's calm directions keeping us all on track. We have served together my entire time on the Board. I will be breaking new ground as immediate Past President not having Jack as a mentor.

FCRV BAND DOES VARIETY SHOW

The FCRV Band Concert under the direction of Craig Weber did not only a concert, but a show to go along with it. Fourteen members strong, the group (being transmitted individually) presented the U.S. and Canada National Anthems then broke into individual performances as introduced by Craig. First up was accordionist Carl Scheller playing the “Beer Barrel Polka” while pictures of couples in the band were shown from their locations. Several band members presented solos. An impressive number was the “Cantina Band” song by Jill Serbousek on clarinet and husband Scott on drums with ‘aliens’ dancing behind them. Another cute number was “Smokey The Bear” by a combo of piano, sax, clarinet and drums. Band couples again showed off their dancing skills to “Always A Woman” which was a special request. Of course no FCRV Band concert would be complete without “Under The Sea” which was rewritten to become the “FCRV Theme Song.” After the show the band even had a virtual pizza party. Don’t miss seeing the video.

AWARD WINNING WRITER READS BOOKS TO YOUTH

Award winning children's book author, Loretta Sponsler read two of her books at FCRV's Virtual Campvention.

She is a full time mom and part time writer whose family loves the outdoors for hiking, biking, camping and exploring. She found that most children's books on camping involved tents so she wrote some with RVs. She read "Good Night Campsite" and "The Tent Mouse and the RV" for FCRV.

Youth also were welcome at some of the Campvention craft projects.

Garden Gazing Ball Craft

"Scary Squirrel Goes Camping" was read by Jill Serbousek, Camy Hicks, Lynn Acre, and Shari Weber.

CRAFTS OFFERED

Several crafts were offered for people to do. Below are examples of some of the crafts.

Glass Globes

Birdfeeder

MURDER MYSTERY PLAY

FCRV'S 'Not Quite Ready For Broadway Players' presented 39 minutes of fun by recreating in radio drama style a murder mystery titled "Bullets on Broadway." Actors were Lynn Acre, Connie Black, Linda English, Elizabeth Pillette, John Pillette, Michael Tharpe, Jill Serbousek, and Craig Weber. The plot revolves around the police investigation of the murder of Billy Bialistock, the producer of the current play in which the actors (suspects) are characters. Each denies their guilt, but in the end we learn the murderer. Tune in and find out for yourself.

CAMPVENTION VENDORS

Our Campvention Vendors spent time & money as well as product donations to support our virtual campvention so we hope our members will take some time to learn more about their products and consider a purchase if you are so moved. There are discounts on some of the products that will be good until we take down our Virtual Campvention pages (around August 17). Please visit the Campvention vendor web page where you can access links to the videos and seminar recordings that contain the discount information. The page is <https://fcv.org/come-camp-with-us/campvention/campvention-2020/campvention-2020-vendors/>

TEEN BALL

Having a virtual Teen Ball is quite a feat, but Teen Director, Emily Kurburski and Jill Serbousek accomplished it. Emily interviewed Miss FCRV, Macey Stuckwisch, 1st Runner-up, Thalia Demarest, Miss Congeniality, Grace Carey, Teen King, Caleb Demarest, and 1st Runnetr up, Andrew Huhn.

Each gave an update on their activities and projects. Also ‘Chaperoning’ with Emily were Scott and Jill Serbousek, Ed and Jane Aft, Elizabeth Pilete, and Macey Stuckwisch. Jane Aft put together a nostalgic 10 minute video of scenes from past Miss FCRV Pageants. Some dancing lessons using the Tik-Tok ap were led by Madison Mitchell. The gallery participated also. Teen games were a different story with only 3 participants, Grace and Natalie Carey and Macey Stuckwisch. Macey won a $25 gift certificate from Amazon.

LOTS OF GLITTER IN VIRTUAL PARADE

Squeezing a parade float unto a shoe box isn't an easy task, but 18 individuals and groups took the challenge for the "True North Strong And Free" 2020 Virtual Campvention Parade. The parade theme was "All That Glitters." Lynn Acre and Scott Serbousic did a good job announcing the entries and some Canadian Characters dropped in occasionally with humorous bits. Below are the participants and award winners. Parade Sponsors were Sky Med and Tire Minder.

AN FCRV PARADE FLOAT GETS STUCK AT THE BORDER

From their hot air balloons above Brigden, Scott & Lynn have discovered a float that got stuck at the US-Canada border. Because of this, it was not featured in the parade so we wanted to make sure to let everyone know about this float.

The float was created by LaNelle Ishamael from the Palmetto Retirees of South Carolina. Her float was geared to social distance camping. It has the ultimate glittering Gold camper. No sounds except the call of the birds. Should we be worried about the UFO in the sky?

Lynn Acre & Scott Serbousek hosted the parade. The MacKenzie's (Lew & Lynn Acre) added some comedy breaks.

VIRTUAL TOURS

Even though the Campvention wasn't in Brigden, Ontario as planned, you can still take a virtual Tour of the points of interest. Featured with links are Ontario's Blue Coast, Underground Railroad History, Uncle Tom's Cabin Historical Site, Oil Museum of Canada, and Lambton Heritage Museum.

All are listed with the Virtual Campvention program schedule.

Since we had so much material and pictures for the Virtual Campvention, we will list a "thank you" to all of those that helped make the event happen in next month's Camping Today. You all were definitely appreciated and deserve recognition!

FCRV INTERNATIONAL RETIREE RALLY

MINEOLA CIVIC CENTER

1150 NORTH NEWSOM STREET

MINEOLA, TEXAS 75773

RALLY STARTS: MARCH 23 THRU MARCH 28, 2021

EARLY DAYS: MARCH 19 TO MARCH 22

FISHIN' FOR FIFTY

by Kip & Jan Cushing, 2021 Rally Chairman

Part 2

Have you taken the bait yet and begun making plans to attend the fiftieth retiree rally? The rally is March 23-29, 2021 in Mineola, TX. Early bird days are March 19 – 22.

Many committee chairman and co-chairman positions have been filled. Committees in need of volunteers are:

Alternates and Asst. Alternates

- Book Exchange
- Games and Asst. Games
- Group Pictures and Asst. Group Pictures

There are also several other assistant positions that need filling. If you would like to volunteer for any of these positions, please contact us at kcushing@wi.rr.com. The rally needs to have volunteers to make it successful and for all to have a great time.

MINEOLA, TEXAS

by Barb Turner, PR Chair

FCRV International Retiree Rally 2021 is a milestone in the organization....FIFTY Retiree Rallies will be celebrated March 23 – 29, 2021 at the Mineola Civic Center,

Mineola, Texas. Rally Coordinators Kip & Jan Cushing are celebrating the accomplishment with their theme for the rally being ‘Fishin’ for Fifty’. Over the next few months, the rally committee chairs will be sharing what to expect in March in Mineola in Camping Today.

In the July issue of Camping Today, we shared a little about the facilities at the Mineola Civic Center. In this August issue, we want to share a little about the city of Mineola.

Mineola is at the junction of U.S. highways 69 and 80, eighty miles east of Dallas in southwestern Wood County. It came into existence when the railroads laid tracks through eastern Texas in the early 1870s. Interestingly, in 1873 it was a race between the Texas and Pacific and the International-Great Northern to see which could get to Mineola first. The I-GN reached Mineola 15 minutes before the Texas and Pacific Railroad! That would have been exciting! The city government was organized in 1873. A post office was opened in 1875. Incorporation came in 1877. In the 1880s a fire destroyed 18 buildings, but the city didn’t die. It rebuilt and flourished, and by 1890 there were seven churches, several schools including a free black school, hotels, banks, and businesses. The population reached 2,000!

East Texas was in the ‘timber belt’ which made railroad ties and lumber plentiful for the railroads. ‘In 1879, S. Zuckerman, a Mineola resident, filled contracts for 85,000 ties that were used in the construction of the T&P RR west to El Paso.’ Over the years, Mineola has remained a small East Texas town with several commercial endeavors. For more of Mineola’s history, check out this link https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mineola,_Texas.

Plan on ‘Fishin’ for Fifty’ in Mineola, Texas in March, 2021. More Mineola info and rally info will be shared in the months ahead! See you in Mineola, Texas in March!

GEORGE WALTERS GOODBYE

As you read this message, I will no longer be a member of the FCRV Executive Board. As Shari Weber noted in the July issue of Camping Today, when I ran for the position of VP-Programs, the office had just been created. Since I was the first person elected to this position, there was not a precedent to fall back on. There were challenges of course, but with input from the Board of Trustees and other camping friends, as well as support from my wife, Debbie, everything seemed to fall in place. We've added programs and all of the Program Directors are doing a great job. Please volunteer and support them when you can.

At this time I would like to thank the Trustees for their support over the last eight years. I would also like to remind all of you that Debbie & I are not going away. We will be active at the next Retiree Rally as well as the next Campvention. For that reason, I am keeping my current email address. Feel free to contact me at any time.

Until we meet at the next Campfire, take care of yourselves, stay healthy keep reading your Camping Today, and keep camping. We have a wonderful organization which exists because of YOU!
